1. INTRODUCTION - LE MANS ESPORTS SERIES OVERVIEW

The Le Mans Esports Series championship is composed of 6 events (“Qualifiers”) and a Super Final with teams that will take place at the 24 Hours of Le Mans 2019.

Organization of the championship in 3 major regions:

The championship is divided into 3 major regions:

- Europe, Middle-East and Africa (EMEA)
- Americas (North America and South America)
- Asia Pacific

When signing in the competition Qualifiers, you will be invited to choose the region you are living in (note that you can only compete for a single region).

Organization of the Qualifiers

Each Qualifier is divided into two stages :

- Open hotlap qualifications, in conditions (track, cars, settings, etc.) specific to each race.
- Races, supervised by the expert marshals of Glory4Gamers. This is where you have to show your true driving skills and your ability to last the distance.
 - Ranked races, based on previous hotlap qualifications.
 - in conditions (track, cars, settings, etc.) specific to each race once again.
 - Reflecting the spirit of endurance and of the FIA World Endurance Championship (FIA WEC) events.

Championship points

Drivers can qualify in two ways for the Super Final at Le Mans :

- Directly by winning one of the six stages / races of their regions
 - For each of the 6 Qualifiers, each regional champion directly qualifies for the Super Final
 - The three winners of a Qualifier are gathered in a team (which could be supported by Le Mans Esports Series potential sponsors, especially during the Super Final)
 - 6 teams with three pilots are thus created
- Or at the end of the six stages of the championship according to the team points ranking.

- As in the 24 Hours of Le Mans, every player can join or create a team
- Team points are the sum of each of its pilots points: pay much attention when choosing your teammates!
- 4 esports teams will qualify thanks to championship points
- Finally, two teams will be directly invited by the LMES Organization (with “Wild Cards”).

At the end of each Qualifier, points are awarded to participants based on their results AND the number of participants.

- The more you will be to participate in a Qualifier, the more points will be awarded : whatever your level is, you will have an interest to invite a maximum of your contacts to join the Qualifiers of the Le Mans Esports Series to see some sudden changes in the general ranking.

Organization of the Super Final at the 24H of Le Mans 2019

The Super Final, which will take place at the 24 Hours of Le Mans 2019, will bring together 36 drivers grouped into 12 teams in a race that matches the myth of the 24 Hours of Le Mans.

2. PROLOGUE

This competition is open to anyone who is eligible to take part in accordance with this “Master Rulebook” (in particular you will need a copy of the Forza Motorsport 7 game with Xbox Live, and have gone through the online registration process).

You are not eligible to participate if you are under 16 years of age at the point of registration.

Every participation is subject to the terms of the Master Rulebook and is required to read and agree to the terms of this Master Rulebook in its entirety.

Please find below key information about the 2018-2019 Le Mans Esports Series (not designed to replace any requirement for you to read and agree to the terms of this Master Rulebook in its entirety):

1. The first Qualifier (Silverstone) starts on 18 August 2018
2. You must have an account at <https://www.LeMansEsports.com> in order to take part.
3. You must be aged 16 years or over to participate (at the time you create your account).
4. The competition is open to any player with a copy of Forza Motorsport 7 and a Xbox Live Gold valid subscription. Participants can play on PC and/or Xbox One.
5. The global competition is divided into 3 Regions: (i) Americas, (ii) Europe and Middle-East, and (iii) Asia.
6. The Season shall comprise
 - six Qualifiers, each made of (i) open hotlap qualifications and (ii) a large number of ranked races,
 - and a Super Final at Le Mans in June 2019.
7. The Qualifiers are linked the the real official FIA WEC program, and an external event (see detailed program for more information):
 - Silverstone
 - Fuji
 - Shangaï
 - Autosport International Show
 - Sebring
 - Spa-Francorchamps
8. Some of these Qualifiers may comprise onsite races with the best drivers from the local Region.
9. The Le Mans 2019 Super Final will be a team event and will last 24 Hours (more details soon)
10. 36 participants (in total, grouped in 12 teams) shall be invited to take part in the Super Final at the 24 Hours of Le Mans 2019 as follows (as further set out in this Master Rulebook):
 - 18 participants will be individually directly qualified from the 6 Qualifiers (each Region champion).

- The three Regional champions of each Qualifier will be gathered as a team for the Super Final (6 teams, one from each Qualifier). The sooner you qualify, the more time you have to get to know your teammates.
 - Please take into consideration that these 6 teams could be supported by LMES potential sponsors, especially during the Super Final, and give you and your team the opportunity to be highlighted by an international brand. Make sure not to miss this unique opportunity for your simracing career if this becomes real.
 - If you qualify directly by winning a regional qualifier, you won't be allowed to quit the newly-formed team to join a team hereafter described.
 - 4 esports teams will be qualified from the championship made of the six Qualifiers, thanks to the points acquired by each player of the team individually (team points are the sum of its pilots points).
 - Pre-existing esports teams thus have a fantastic opportunity to shine in the Le Mans Esports Series.
 - Drivers from these teams do not have to be from each of the three Regions (they can, for example, all come from Americas).
 - 2 teams will receive a wildcard to participate to the Super Final.
11. For each event, participants will be given a list of authorized cars, and detailed settings (see each specific rule for more details)
 12. Drivers are permitted to use a controller, racing wheel and/or pedals during Online Qualifiers. Drivers must use a racing wheel and pedals during onsite races (provided by the official Le Mans Esports Series partner).

 14. Advancing to the "Onsite Events" will depend on qualifying or being invited with a wild card (Asian onsite #1 race at Fuji ; European onsite #1 race Autosport International Show, and Le Mans onsite Super Final all regions). Please be aware that participants cannot pretend to anything if pre-existing arrangements prevent them from doing so.
 - Participants should be aware (if they qualify) that they must be available and able to physically attend the events (and allow sufficient time for travel to such events).
 - Regardless of the platform used by any participant before the "Onsite Events", all qualified participants that compete in the Le Mans Esports Series shall be required to compete on an XBOX ONE using a simulator wheel and pedals (provided by Le Mans Esports Series Partners).
 15. This Master Rulebook governs participation in the entire Le Mans Esports Series but specifically covers the format and rules relating to the championship and its Qualifiers. Additional rules relating to the Super Final and other "Onsite Events" (covering matters including but not limited to format, rules, scoring, requirements, attendance and conduct at such events) shall be made available on the Website. Given their significance, they will also be provided to participants who qualify for such stages (and, where relevant, their parents/guardians) in hard copy, by way of supplementing this Master Rulebook.

8. TEAMS IN THE LE MANS ESPORTS SERIES

Teams have a special place in the myth of the 24 Hours of Le Mans. They are one of the keys to the automotive endurance.

For this reason, LMES Organization wished gladly to give a place to esports teams who help make the simracing alive and well, but also to the groups of friends who will have the desire to try the adventure of Le Mans Esports Series together, why not until the end.

In addition to the direct individual qualifications during the six qualifying events (as a reminder, 6 temporary teams will be formed directly at the end of these events and will be qualified for the Super Final at the 24 Hours of Le Mans 2019), 4 existing esports teams will be qualified for the Super Final due to the points won on the entire championship throughout the year, and 2 esports teams will receive an invitation in the form of Wild Card.

The 4 qualified teams are split throughout the regions in following way :

- EMEA : 2 Teams
- ASIA-PACIFIC : 1 Team
- AMERICAS : 1 Team

This is a golden opportunity to showcase your team, the regularity and work of your group, and perhaps to your (future) sponsors.

How are the points of a team calculated?

The total points of a team is equal to the sum of the points of the drivers of the team (with a maximum of three drivers per team).

It is important that the teams have the time to be formed and to evolve, especially for this first season of the Le Mans Esports Series (LMES) which got off to a flying start.

- The teams will be able to recruit and to change and evolve their composition until the 1st of January 2018.
- Afterwards, the teams will be frozen and can not change or recruit anymore. Be sure to make good recruitments and transfers!
- A player who leaves a team leaves it with his points, the team to whom he belonged then will only have the points of his other drivers
- If he joins a new team, the new team wins the points accumulated by the driver since the beginning of the season.
- Insofar as the qualifying events remain individual, the players who belong to a team will obviously keep their points in the individual ranking.

How to create a team on www.LeMansEsportsSeries.com

All players registered on the platform can create a team, whether they are professional or amateur drivers.

In all cases, you will have the opportunity to defend your colors and to progress throughout the year, to perhaps win one of the very coveted spots for the Super Final at Le Mans.

To create a team, simply go to the related section in your account and complete the team creation form.

When you create a team, you can stay alone, but the interest is quite limited! It is therefore in your interest to invite experienced drivers to join your team.

Big and major teams may also want to register two crews or more, which is quite possible thanks to the concept of rosters. You can, if you wish, create several rosters within the same team and make compete several subgroups of players, knowing that each subgroup is limited to 3 drivers maximum.

However, each player can only belong to one team at a time. If you want to join a new team, at first, you will have to leave your first team.

It is also possible to join a team but without having the role of a driver. This feature allows to give to mechanics, photographers, designers and to all the shadow roles within a team their place.

Le Mans Esports Series really want to highlight all the fans who make the simracing and who are passionate for years for the oldest among them!

11. GAMING RULES

- A. On-track Behaviour - The Le Mans Esports Series is a very ambitious and serious competition, on track behaviour has to be in line with sportsman-like behaviour and appropriate clean racing as set out below:
 - a. Passing - The responsibility for the decision to pass another car, and to do it safely, rests with the overtaking Driver. The overtaken Driver should be aware that he/she is being passed and must not impede the pass by "Blocking" (as defined below). A Driver who does not watch his/her mirrors or who appears to be blocking another car seeking a pass may be penalised. The act of passing is initiated when the trailing car's front wing overlaps with the lead car's rear wing. The act of passing is complete when the trailing car's rear wing is ahead of the lead car's front wing.
 - b. Avoidable Contact - Drivers who cause contact which could be avoided by taking due care and attention during a race may be penalised.
 - c. Ramming/Punting - Nose to tail (or side-of-the-nose to side-of-the-tail) contact, where the leading car is significantly knocked off of the racing line may be penalised. Once the trailing car has its front wheel next to the Driver of the other vehicle, it is considered that the trailing car has a right to be there, and that the leading Driver must leave the trailing Driver enough "racing room." In most cases, "racing room" is defined as "at least one car's width". If adequate racing room is left for the trailing car, and there is incidental contact made between the cars, the contact will be considered "side-to-side" and shall be deemed acceptable providing no other rule has been broken.
 - d. Rough Driving - Any overly aggressive or forceful driving resulting in contact between vehicles or one or more vehicle being unfairly obstructed may be penalised.
 - e. Blocking - A Driver may choose to defend his/her racing line so long as it is not considered "Blocking". "Blocking" is defined as two consecutive line changes to "defend his/her line," and in doing so, impedes the vehicle that is trying to pass with each of the two consecutive movements, such behaviour may be penalised. If, in the case of side-to-side contact, one of the two cars leave the racing surface (involuntarily) then it may be considered “a racing incident.”

- f. Right to the Line - The Driver in front has the right to choose any line, so long as not to be considered Blocking. The Driver attempting to make a pass shall have the right to the line when their front wheel is next to the Driver of the other vehicle.
- g. Race Pace - It is prohibited for any Driver to come to a complete stop on or beside the circuit without good reason or the intention of retiring and leaving the race. It is prohibited for any Driver to wilfully drive their car at a pace which LMES Organization in its sole discretion considers to be 50% or less of their usual race pace, either on or off the track during racing conditions. Such behaviour may be penalised.
- h. Driving the Wrong Way - Driving the wrong way during any race may result in disqualification from the relevant event or such other penalty as LMES Organization may decide. In extreme circumstances, permission to drive in the wrong direction can be accepted by LMES Organization but must be undertaken in a safe and controlled manner.
- i. Excessive weaving - Excessive weaving to break slipstreams or cause the car behind to take avoiding action may be penalised.
- j. Forcing others off the track - Drivers found to be forcing other cars off the track will be reviewed by the adjudicators and may be penalised.
- k. Leaving ghosted cars on track - Leaving a car stationary on the track is forbidden and may be penalised. This includes qualifying sessions where the ghosted car may act as a distraction to approaching cars. If Drivers have finished their session, they should retire or go back to the pit box.
- l. Obstructing the pit lane - Drivers are prohibited from obstructing the pit lane and such behaviour will be reviewed by the adjudicators and may be penalised.
- m. Wall-riding - Intentionally hitting the wall in order change the cars direction and alleviating the cars need to brake for a corner may be penalised.

Such behaviour may of course be penalised.

Violations will be at the sole determination of LMES Organization. Drivers deemed to have violated race Code of Conduct may be penalised and risk expulsion from an event and/or the entire Le Mans Esports Series. All participants in the Le Mans Esports Series are not allowed to discuss decisions made in the Competition in any stream chats and other public places in any way considered depreciating or critical of the Le Mans Esports Series.

- C. Disciplinary Procedure - If any section of the Master Rulebook is breached by a Participant, a standard formal procedure will take place as punishment. The procedure is as follows (these penalties may be applied by Marshals in addition to any automatic penalty awarded to the Drivers by the Game).
- a. Warnings - No penalty applied but discrepancy noted. If a Driver breaks a rule referenced previously and no advantage is gained then a warning may be applied. Warnings may also be applied if a Driver is deemed to have broken any rule referenced in the Master Rulebook but these rule breaks were not deemed to have been intentional and/or no advantage was gained or disadvantage was caused to other Drivers.
 - b. Light penalties - Drivers who break any rules referenced in the Master Rulebook and gain a minor advantage or cause a minor disadvantage to another driver may be given a penalty per incident. For example, excessive blocking.

 - d. Major penalties (Disqualification) - Drivers who intentionally break any rules referenced in the Master Rulebook and purposely cause themselves or any other Driver a disadvantage may be disqualified from the race and/or future races in the Le Mans Esports Series.

Driver whose conduct is considered unacceptable may be disqualified from the race and/or future races in the Le Mans Esports Series.

These penalties can be given at any moment during the Le Mans Esports Series. The Administration may follow such other procedure or apply such other penalties as it may consider suitable in the circumstances where this Master Rulebook is not respected.

4. Disciplinary Procedure - If a Driver drops out of the Game during a race or qualifying session (due to connection issues or otherwise), there will be no type of re-start of the session unless deemed appropriate by an Official. If a driver suffers connection issues due to low bandwidth, resulting in unusual car behaviour within the game, then that driver may be disqualified from the session where they will forfeit any points or lap time associated with that race or qualifying session. At no point will Drivers be allowed to re-join a session unless an Official expressly approves otherwise. For more details, please refer to your tournament specific rules.

- a. Forfeit - If a driver chooses to forfeit a race or qualifying session or otherwise fails to complete a race or qualifying session for any reason, they will forfeit that race or qualifying session (as applicable). However, during Hotlap qualification stages, they will still keep their previous qualifying sessions times and of course still have the opportunity to try again if hotlap qualifications are still open and during Ranked Races stages, they will be considered the last driver of the Race, and will thus still get points as they previously qualified. Drivers may not end a race or otherwise quit out of the session under any circumstances without prior approval from LMES Organization. Failure to abide by this rule may result in a penalty.
- b. Restarts - If four or more Drivers do not complete a Ranked Race for whatever reason, the session may be restarted at LMES Organization's sole discretion. LMES Organization reserves the right to restart, cancel, end or otherwise amend a race or session at any point and without prior notice, at its sole discretion.

The championship starts during the 6 Hours of Silverstone in August 2018, a race of the FIA WEC, the FIA World Endurance Championship.

Detailed explanation of every Qualifier

- 1) First four Qualifiers : Silverstone, Fuji, Shanghai, Birmingham

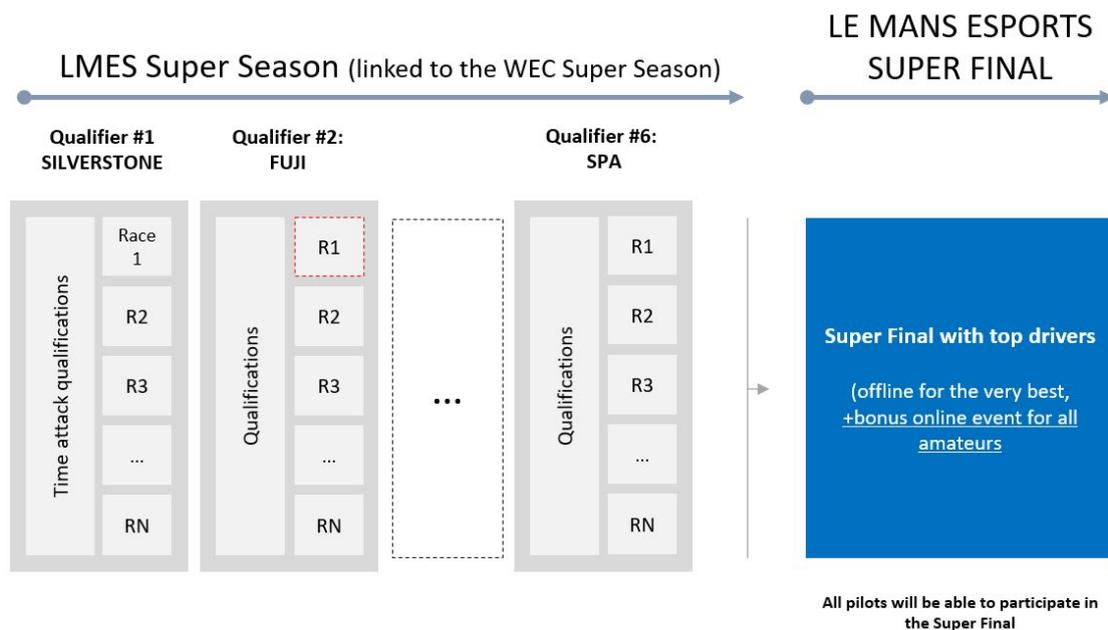

Each of the six Qualifiers of the Le Mans Esports Series is divided into 2 stages :

- 1. Hotlap qualifications of participants:
 - Directly on : www.LeMansEsports.com for Silverstone, Fuji, Shanghai and Autosport International Show

 - At the end of your race, you are invited to inform the results and to request an arbitration if you consider it is necessary.

2) Qualifiers five and six : Sebring and Spa-Francorchamps

The last two qualifiers will also be divided into 2 stages, but the first stage will differ from the first four as the Hotlap qualifications will be played in Rivals mode directly in Forza Motorsport 7. Stage 2 remains the same.

- 1. Hotlap qualifications of participants in Rivals mode directly in the game. Please note that participants MUST nevertheless register to the corresponding Qualifier on www.LeMansEsports.com

Special case of the “Onsite” events

In all cases, hotlap qualifying rounds are played online.

Meanwhile, among the 6 Qualifiers, two will see their #1 Races played onsite in public, with the best pilots of the regions :

- Fuji, in Japan, with the best 10 pilots of the Asia-Pacific region at the end of qualifiers.
- Autosport International at Birmingham in England, with the best 10 drivers of the Europe, Middle-East & Africa region.

The other races (Race #2 and what follows) will be played online, as with the other Qualifiers.

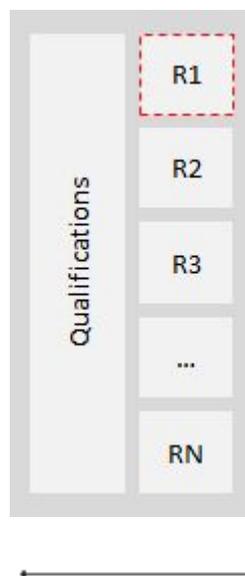

In addition, for these three onsite events, 2 places will be reserved for the drivers present on site who will be able to try to qualify onsite just before the final race (a race on simulators with steering wheels, and on three laps only).

These last chance places are in low numbers and the access to simulators is not guaranteed, we recommend you do everything possible to qualify earlier online.

Surpass yourself like never before in order to qualify for these three exceptional events ahead of the Super Final which will take place in parallel to the 24 Hours of Le Mans 2019!

14. TIME PERIOD FOR EACH QUALIFIER

Each of the 6 Qualifiers is made of (i) Hotlap qualifications and (ii) ranked races.

Hotlap qualifications:

1. The detailed dates are listed in the Super Season program page on the Website, and are subject to changes.
2. All Hotlap qualification periods last 13 days.
3. Within each hotlap qualification period, drivers have the opportunity to participate as many times as they want, in accordance with the Master Rulebook
4. Drivers can sign in hotlap qualifications even when they are started.
5. drivers can try as many times as they want to make the best possible hotlap.
6. In the end, only each driver's best time is taken into account.

Ranked races:

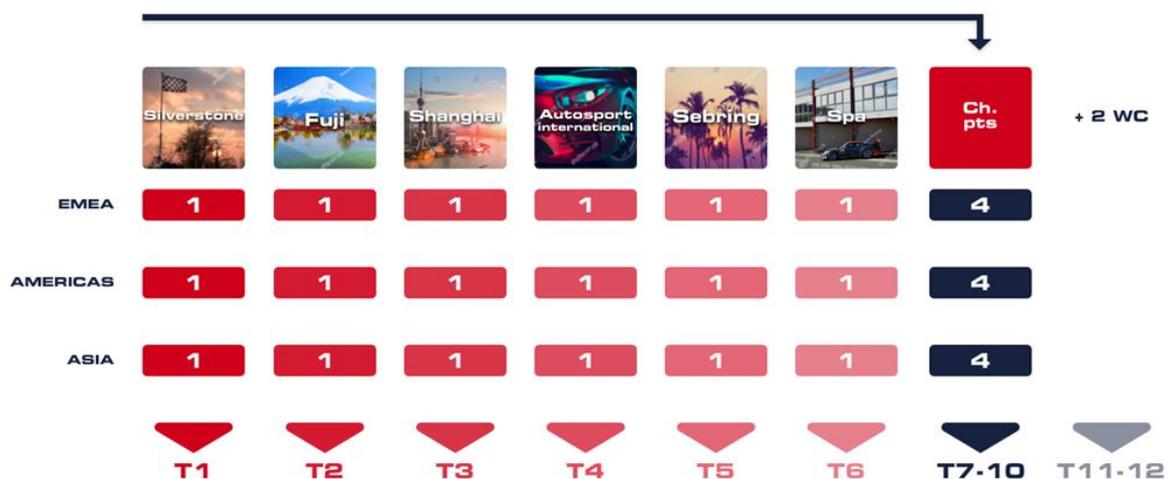

1. Drivers are then ranked
2. Once ranked, drivers are allocated to races with specific settings, dates and time that can be checked on the website.
3. Regarding settings, top races will be played in real condition settings, whereas lower races will use the phantom mode in order to provide players with the best possible experience
4. The number of races will vary in time, please refer to the Qualifiers program ("Competition") for further details.
5. Please, be aware that if you do not manage to click the "ready" button during the 10-minute check-in, you will be automatically disqualified from your race and considered as the last player regarding allocated points.

LMES Organization may, at its sole discretion extend, shorten or otherwise amend the hotlap qualification period and races dates.

15. HOW TO QUALIFY FOR THE SUPER FINAL AT THE 24H OF LE MANS 2019

Whether you're a professional or an amateur driver, you can qualify in many ways for the Super Final of the first season of the Le Mans Esports Series that will take place during the 24H of Le Mans 2019.

- Either directly through every Qualifier (a total of 18 pilots, the winners of each regional Qualifier, gathered in 6 teams)
- Or via the championship according to the points obtained by your team throughout the season (a total of 4 esports teams)
- In addition, 2 teams will be directly invited (2 wild cards) by the LMES Organization.

Direct qualifications for the Super Final:

The three winners of Silverstone will compose the first team ("T1" on the diagram), the three winners of Fuji, will compose the second and so on until Spa-Francorchamps, for a total of 6 teams.

If you intend to qualify directly for the Super Final of the Le Mans Esports Series, you should do it as soon as possible to have the maximum time to get to know your two teammates. That's the spirit of automotive endurance as well!

The drivers who qualify directly throughout the 6 Qualifiers could be sponsored by some big names or brands. A not to be missed opportunity.

Please note that if you qualify individually directly through Qualifiers, you won't have the possibility to leave the newly-created team for an esports team that would qualify thanks to points. Be strategic, choose your path to the super Final!

Team points qualifications for the Super Final at the end of the championship:

In addition to the six teams created directly at the end of the six Qualifiers, six esports teams will be qualified for the Super Final at Le Mans 2019.

The Le Mans Esports Series want to highlight the values of endurance and especially the importance of the teams, which is why it was decided, by listening to the passionate and the long-time dedicated players, to keep six places (on a total of 12) for the Super Final for existing esports teams who will compete during the whole championship.

Four of these teams will be qualified through points, and the other two teams will be invited via the Wild Cards.

Before the Super Final, drivers compete individually and bring their points to their teams.

The points attributed at the end of each Qualifier are not constant. They depend on the total number of participants : the more you will be, the more the number of total points awarded will be important.

This mechanism presents many advantages :

- All participants are rewarded, no matter what their level is.
- The drivers can take part to the championship at anytime during the first season, without having any chance to qualify
- Some sudden changes can take place until the very end of the championship (think about sharing it with your friends, by participating, they may help you win some valuable places in the general ranking)

Note that teams qualified thanks to points do not have to be composed of one driver from each region (the three drivers can come from Americas for example).

Be strategic, there are only 4 slots for team qualifications through championship points.

Wild cards

Wild Cards for the Super Final will be granted by the organizer of the competition to two teams.
